A SAFE BET.

T. T. Neal, a well known citizen of Robertson, was found dead in bed at the Berry Hotel, Mt. Olivet, Thursday.
Mr. Neal had been in very feeble health for several months, and of late had been confined to his room. He was about 73 years old. He was never married and is survived by one brother, M. M. Neal, of Pewee Valley. He was an uncle of Mrs. Samuel Throckmorton, of Mt. Olivet, and Mr. J. W.
Neal, of near there.

It is probable that 200,000 pounds of Robertson's tobacco crop has been already sold. C. D. Ashbury leading in the purchase of crops, his purchases amounting to about 100,000 pounds.
J. W. Conner, of Kentonown, is the next largest purchaser of crops.

Mrs. Mary Etta Dalrymple, of Manchester, was adjudged an epileptic,
and was taken to the state epileptic hospital at Gallipolis. The patient is 36 years of age and has a husband and three children.

Alex. Davis, colored, arrested at Portsmouth, charged with bootlegging, has sold seven barrels of pint bottles of booze since last September from an old stable in the rear of his home there.

Mr. Robert M. Cartmell, the genial cashier of the Adams Express Company, who has been confined to his room with an attack of pneumonia, is able to be up.

The coming General Assembly will probably be asked to divide Pike county, naming the eastern section Mayo county in honor of the late mountain millionaire.

Mrs. J. W. Boulden, who has been quite ill for the last ten days, is somewhat improved, being able to be up for a few minutes.

HEAVY RAINS

Of Last Few Days Have Caused Sharp
Rises In Rivers In This State.

One of the heaviest rains in years has fallen over Kentucky within the last thirty-six hours, swelling small streams and flooding lowlands, but, reports indicate, resulting as yet in comparatively little damage.

At Louisville the Weather Bureau
reports a rainfall of 4.19 inches during the twenty-four hours, ending at 7 a. m. Friday. At Frankfort 2.60 inches are reported, and at Paducah,
in the western part of the state, 2.33 inches. The heaviest fall, 4.42 inches, is reported from Cloverport.

Reports from Frankfort show the Kentucky river rose seventeen feet in twenty-four hours, and at High Bridge twelve and a half feet. The Ohio river at Madison, Ind., near the mouth of the Kentucky river, rose 8.8 feet.

A thirty-foot rise in the Kentucky river at Jackson, following heavy rains, which has been continuous for the last thirty-six hours, was reported.
All mountain streams are at flood tide and rising rapidly and further rains would endanger many small villages.

The Licking is reported to have risen twenty-three feet in twelve hours.

The Ohio at this point is rising rapidly, the dam being covered again, and it is expected to rise sharply for several days.

MAKES HOTEL PAY

Court Holds It Responsible For Loss
of Guest's Ring.

D. C. Reed, a commercial traveler of Chicago, was given a verdict of $50
at Lexington in his suit against the Phoenix Hotel Company for $250, on account of the alleged loss of a diamond ring while he was a guest of the hotel. The plaintiff claimed that he had left the ring on a dresser while he washed his hands, and missed it soon after a bell boy had left the room. The hotel company denied any responsibility for valuables lost unless they were placed in the hotel safe, and undertook also to prove that the bell boy was guiltless of having stolen the ring.

Let's see; didn't Editor Jim Allen of

MR. W. B. PECOR

Respected Resident Died At Early Hour Saturday—Pioneer Business Man Here.

At the early hour of 1:50 Saturday morning, Mr. W. B. Pecor died at his home on East Third street.

Mr. Pecor has lived all his life in Maysville. He was engaged in the shoe business at the stand now occupied by the Star Clothing House, being associated with S. S. Minor, and later with his brother, the late J. H.
Pecor. He retired from active business about four years ago.

Mr. Pecor was a member of the Red Men and Ringgold lodge of I. O. O. F., and also of the old Neptune Fire Company.

He has been in failing health for the last year, and for the last three weeks has been confined to his bed. On Thursday he had a turn for the worse,
his friends recognizing it would not be long until the death summons
would call him.

Mr. Pecor was 57 years old last November. He will be missed by a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

He is survived by one sister, Miss Rachel Pecor, who was with him
when he passed away.

Funeral services from the home
Monday morning at 10:30. Rev. Maurice Waller will be in charge. Interment in the Maysville cemetery.

HORSES WANDER AWAY.

Two horses owned by R. M. Harrison & Son, of Commerce street, got out of their stable and made their way back to their home, on Mr. Harrison's farm. D. H. Harrison brought them in Friday at noon, looking a little lank, but none the worse for the loss of a feed or two.

The ideal Xmas gift, a Howard Hamilton or Gruen watch. Strictly

SALLEE IN BIG TRADE

May Wear Uniform of Cincinnati
Reds Next Year.

(Getorgetown News-Democrat.)

Harry Sallee, the well known baseball pitcher, when paying taxes upon his Lewis township land holdings
Tuesday, did not seem to be concerned in the reported deal in which he was to be transferred from the St.
Louis National to the Cincinnati Reds.
This report stated that Sallee, Butler and Betzel, of the St. Louis team, were to be traded for Herzog, who has been managing the Reds for the last two seasons. If the deal is consummated, it will be officially announced during the next few days.

TOBACCO MARKET FOR DOVER.

(Dover News.)

It is possible that Dover will have a loose leaf tobacco market next season. One of the most prominent tobacco men in Kentucky has expressed a willingness to put up one-half of the capital necessary to build a warehouse.
The only thing asked of this community is that the farmers and the people of the town manifest a desire for the market. Now, if we want this industry, let some of our tobacco men and tobacco growers investigate the matter and see that the project is pushed to a consummation.

Captain O. L. Cosgrove, of Mystic, Conn., is soon to start on a world
cruise in his thirty-foot motor driven lifeboat cruiser Safety First. He will pass by way of the Hudson river and Erie canal into the Great Lakes, through inland waters to the Gulf, and thence out upon the bounding seas, accompanied by his wife, a crew of two men and a motion picture operator.

Very poor lime may produce a temperature of 300 degrees centigrade,
which is sufficient to char wood on ex-posure to the air.

Various estimates have been placed on this year's yield of tobacco in Robertson, some placing it at not less than 2,000,000 pounds, while others
place it as high as 3,000,000 pounds.

The Kentucky Illiteracy Commission will ask the Legislature for an appropriation of $50,000 to carry on its work for the next four years.

WEDDING OF PRESIDENT WILSON AND MRS. GALT WILL BE FAMILY AFFAIR

Only Immediate Relatives of the Couple to Be Present at the Ceremony—Honeymoon Trip to the South Is Planned—Galt Home Where Wedding Will Be Performed to Be Veritable Conservatory—Marriages of Other Presidents Recalled.

By GEORGE CLINTON.

(Copyright, 1915, Western Newspaper Union.)
Washington.—In a small, unpretentious house, 1308 Twentieth street, in this city, Mrs. Edith Bolling Galt, widow, will be married Saturday, December 18, to Woodrow Wilson, widower and president of the United States.

Not since the marriage of President John Tyler, to Miss Julia Gardiner has there been a wedding of a president marked by such extreme quiet and seclusion as is to be the case at this wedding which will join the Wilsons and the Galt families. President Wilson went to New York to be married to Miss Gardiner and there at the of the Ascension in the presence of only a handful of persons he to himself his second wife. At the wedding of another president the United States there will be no persons except those of the late families of the two cons parties.

One cabinet officer, Mr. McWilliam will witness the ceremony, and by right of his official position, because he is the son-in-law of the president, having married Mr. Wilson's daughter. When Grover Cleveland was married in the White House to Miss Folsom, the wedding was a small one, but included were members of the president's cabinet and several other high officials. President Wilson and Galt have decided that their wedding shall be wholly a family affair. Relatives Only to Be Present.

Mr. Galt will be attended by her sister, Miss Bertha Bolling of this city. Even with the guests limited to members of the families of the president and his bride-to-be the capacity of the parlors in the modest home will be taxed, for both the couples have many close relatives. To witness the ceremony and to see congratulations to the newly married couple will be present: Miss Margaret Wilson, the president's eldest daughter; Mrs. Francis Bowes Sayre of Williamstown, Mass., the president's second daughter; Mrs. William G. McAdoo, the president's third daughter; Mrs. Anne Howe of Philadelphia, the president's sister; Joseph R. Wilson of Baltimore, the president's brother; Miss Helen Woodrow Bones, the president's cousin, and several other close relatives of the president's family.

Mrs. Galt, who, before her first marriage was Miss Edith Bolling of Virginia, has several brothers and sisters, all of whom will attend the wedding. Mrs. Galt's mother, Mrs. William H. Bolling, is living and makes her home with her daughter. Mrs. Galt's sisters, who will be in attendance are Miss Bertha Bolling of Washington and Mrs. H. H. Maury of Anniston, Ala. Her brothers, all of whom will attend, are John Randolph Bolling, Richard W. Bolling, Julian B. Bolling, all of Washington; R. E. Bolling of Panama and Dr. W. A. Bolling of Louisville, Ky.

To Avoid Big Crowd.

Up to the very last moment it is probable that the exact hour of the wedding ceremony will be kept a secret. The desire is to prevent the gathering of a huge crowd about the Galt residence. As soon as the ceremony is over and the members of the family have congratulated the bride and groom, the newly married ones will leave for the South on a honeymoon trip which probably will last until the first week in January. The president and his bride must be back in Washington before January 7 in order to act as host and hostess at a great reception to be given in the White House to the Pan-American representatives in the capital, and, moreover, because congress by that time will have reconvened after the Christmas holidays and Mr. Wilson must be back at his desk.

The White House conservatories and several of the private conservatories of the city of Washington will have their stocks of flowers nearly depleted in order to make beautiful with blossoms the scene of this wedding of a president. The Galt residence virtually will become a conservatory itself on the night of the ceremony. There will be music furnished by a small orchestra assigned from the membership of the Marine band, but the actual wedding march is likely to be played upon a piano by Miss Bertha Bolling, one of Mrs. Galt's sisters.

Orchids Mrs. Galt's Favorite.

An altar, which virtually will be a bank of flowers, is to be erected at the west end of the parlors of the residence. The bride-to-be will meet the president at the foot of the stairway in a hall without the wedding room, and will walk with him from there to the altar front. Mrs. Galt will carry a bouquet of orchids, which Mr. Wilson found out long ago to be her favorite flowers. She will be attired in a traveling gown. The ring will be a plain gold circlet inscribed with the initials of bride and groom.

Mrs. Edith Bolling Galt has been known for a good many years as one of the most perfectly groomed women in Washington. She is a handsome woman and always dresses in exquisite taste. Her gowns always have been chosen with rare care and almost perfect judgment. For some time Mrs. Galt has been busy in selecting her trousseau, being aided in this most important work by her mother, Mrs. Bolling, a woman of excellent discernment. Mrs. Galt's trousseau already has arrived in Washington. Its selection was a matter of months and some controversies arose as to what might be called its origin. There were stories to the effect that French supply houses resented supplying anything through German-American middle men. Most of the stories were baseless, and it can be said that almost wholly Mrs. Galt's wedding outfit is of American origin.

WHAT WAR IS LIKE

Soldier Describes Battle to His Little Son.

Tells of Scenes in the Trenches and of the Work of Artillery—All Very Costly, Very Destructive and Very Useful.

London.—The following letter was written by a British army officer in France to his nine-year-old son, who had asked his father what a real battle line was like:

"My Dear Brian—You would like to know what a real battle line is like. In the distance you see a hill and on the right some woods. Some farmhouses, one or two still intact, and others mere heaps of brick, lie dotted about. Near you on the right is a battery hidden under bushes and earthworks. Nearer you still are dugouts in which the men live underground.

"In the distance is a German anti-aircraft balloon watching the country. On the right and overhead is an aeroplane. Beyond the hill and the woods are the trenches in which the infantry face the German infantry, also in trenches. Somewhere near the trenches, and where they can see them well and the country on the German side, are the artillery observation officers, who telephone directions to the batteries and direct their fire where they want. All this is done very accurately on a special system called registration, by which having once hit a target you can always go on hitting it or anything near it.

"For instance, yesterday when I was directing the battery at one of these places a German put up a tin on a pole and waved it about in the air in his trench. I saw this, told one gunner what angle to lay at and the range, and the next moment the shell arrived and the tin went up in the air. What happened in the trench I don't know, but the shell burst in it. One burst in ours this morning and killed one man and wounded two others. So they can do damage.

"The trenches are very lively places at night when a lot of rifle fire is always going on, and one side or the other sends out patrols or snipers to peep over the other's trenches and shoot men; and the trench mortars get busy and send over high-explosive bombs, or someone more daring than others crawls out and throws hand grenades into the trench.

"Behind these front trenches are other trenches, which lead in a zig-zag way to the front, or hold more men ready to help if the front trench is attacked. This is really the nastiest place to be in, because the German artillery are always ready to shoot at them, and do shoot at them when there is any excitement.

"Hidden all along the trenches are machine guns, which fire flank-wise and are very destructive. Then come the artillery, and behind them again the big guns—the very big ones which drop shells a tremendous distance and blow blocks of houses to bits. They say one of ours not long ago dropped a big shell into the middle of an infantry regiment—a German one—and blew 500 of them into little bits. Dotted about around the country where they are most needed are the aerial craft guns, which shoot at 'birds,' as they call the aeroplanes, in very pretty—and very bad.

"Away back behind all these are the aerodromes and captive balloons of our own watching the front, where all the roads are busy with motor transports feeding the firing line with grub and ammunition. You would never think how many men and how much transport are necessary to do all this properly.

"A battle starts with terrific artillery bombardment, sometimes for days, and when the enemy's trenches are absolutely destroyed and their men mazed with the rain of high explosives and gas and bombs the infantry charge across.

"Sometimes the machine guns haven't been knocked out and they take a big toll of life, and always there are plenty of men whom the bombardment fails to knock out. There is never a soul to be seen. There is only a terrible roar of guns and explosions, and the perpetual snapping of rifles and rattle of machine guns. There is a view of some broken walls, trees without leaves or branches, and trenches everywhere.

"You would think there was no life anywhere if it were not for the row, and yet one knows that if you put up a head a thousand eyes will see it and half a thousand fingers pull a trigger.

"It is all very destructive, very costly and very useless, war, but it brings out all that is best in men. No doubt it is for a good purpose which we do not realize at present, when we only see the ruin and the killing and the waste.

"Sometimes the world wants cleaning like the pistons of a motor to make it run smoothly, and this is the way it comes about. You boys later on will reap the benefit of it all."

SO XMAS PEACE FOR BANK WRECKER.

Fort Leavenworth, Kas., December 18.—There will be no Christmas joy bells for Henry M. Dearing, the aged cashier of the Albion National Bank of Michigan, regardless of the fact that he will be released from the Federal prison here next Friday night. Sheriff Mallory sent him a warrant from Michigan armed with a warrant for Dearing's arrest and will try to secure his extradition to Michigan to answer to forged charges brought by those who lost $300,000 through Dearing's embezzlement. Governor Capper, of Kansas, will be asked to sign extradition papers that will allow his removal to Michigan.

Dearing, it is charged, forged the names of several hundred concerns and persons in Albion, Mich., to notes, with which he is alleged to have misled his directors and the bank examiners into thinking the paper was good. Dearing was convicted in the Federal court in Detroit less than four years ago. There is still much feeling against the former cashier among his victims at Albion, and his release here will bring him scant freedom.

TO RELEASE OHIO DYNAMITER.

Columbus, O., December 18.—The State Board of Pardons has endorsed the application for commutation of sentence of Alfred N. Strauder, the Columbus street car dynamiter, who was a terror in this city some five years ago, and unless some hitch occurs Strauder will be given his freedom on Monday.

Strauder's case attracted wide attention at the time he was caught. He came to Columbus to handle the rough work during the street car strike of 1910. Night after night he defied the authorities and eluded scores of armed sheriffs. His activities were so widespread as to cause Governor Harmon to call out the militia to defend the city against his depredations. This took place after a disastrous explosion near the Governor's home. None of the explosions caused loss of life. Finally, through the work of detectives, Strauder was run out of the city after a revolver battle with deputy sheriffs. He escaped to West Virginia and went into hiding, but was betrayed by former associates, who were anxious to get a large reward offered by citizens. It was also suspected that he was turned over to the authorities to prevent him betraying confederates.

CHRISTMAS DAY AT HOME FOR JACKIES.

Washington, December 18.—The sailors on Uncle Sam's ships will spend their Christmas holidays at home. The naval vessels will report at their home ports next Monday, and as many of the officers and men as possible will be given holiday leave of absence. The vessels will remain at home ports until January 6 in most cases. The Jackies who find themselves in foreign duty will be served a Christmas dinner and the day will be observed by those forced to remain aboard ship.

President Launin is sure that he will retain all of his Red Sox string for the coming season.

TY COBB, THE SLUGGER, 29 TODAY

Tyrus Raymond Cobb, the wizard of baseball, is today spending his twenty-ninth birthday on his native Georgia. His dozen years in baseball comprise a romance of mastery. For slugging, speed and head-work he has the boys "going" and he looks good for another half dozen years of supremacy. Ty started life down at Royston, Ga. He played baseball and scrapped his way along, just as he is doing now. The scrap in Cobb developed young. He counted that day lost which did not contain a scrap. His batting average was far below his batting average, for he often bit off more than he could chew and was sent home battered up. The only thing that equalled his love of a scrap was his love of baseball. He finally got a chance on the Anniston team in the Alabama league, 1904, and he came through with a .370 average. He was grabbed by Augusta in the South Atlantic League, where he continued to peg the pill, and Detroit secured him in 1906. His record with the Tigers is known to every American school boy, and he is still piling up his hitting, base running and base stealing victories.

PRESIDENT WILSON

Weds Today—Simple Ceremony For Early Evening.

PRESIDENT AND BRIDE

The Groom.
Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States; age 59; native of Virginia, practiced law, taught history, political economy, jurisprudence and politics, was president of Princeton University; Governor of New Jersey 1911-13; President since 1913. First wedding, June 24, 1885, to Miss Ellen Louisa Axson, of Savannah, Ga. Widowed on August 6, 1914.

The Bride.
Mrs. Edith Bolling Galt, widow of Normal Galt, noted Washington Jeweler, age 38; native of Virginia; daughter of late William H. Bolling, a lawyer. First marriage in 1896 to Normal Galt, of Washington. Has lived in Washington since her first marriage.

Washington, December 18.—The President's wedding day has arrived. At 6 this evening he will take a new bride for the White House. It will be a simple event, with only members of the two families present. At the home of Mrs. Edith Bolling Galt, the charming widow who is to become the leading lady of the land, the wedding ceremony will take place. With the characteristic quietness and refinement of the President and of his new bride, there will be outward display. The marriage is hailed as a genuine love mating, with the President as happy as a bashful young person, and his bride blushing with the modest happiness of a girl in her teens.

The new White House bride is beautiful, graceful and a prime favorite. Widowed soon after she came to Washington a bride in the 'nineties, she did not force her way into the more showy social set, but was content with many friendships among the old residential people of the capital. She is wealthy in her own right, and was left a large fortune by her late husband. With dignity she filled the difficult role of a young, wealthy and beautiful widow. She is today in the prime of life, a picture of health, with brown eyes and hair, a fine complexion and a winning smile. Her figure is good and she dresses with rare taste.

The attachment between the President and his bride of today began during the wooing of the President's physician, Dr. Carey Grayson, whose fiancée was Miss Gertrude Gordon, a particular friend of Mrs. Galt. The President looked with favor on the match, as did Mrs. Galt, and the two fellow conspirators with Cupid found themselves enmeshed in love's toils. The quiet ways of Mrs. Galt completely fascinated the members of his household and she was a welcome visitor at the White House and at the Wilson summer home in New Hampshire last summer. Her taste for literature, music and the things worth while appealed particularly to the President. It is said. She had done much for charity work in her quiet way, and it known that this quality is especially appealing to the President.

Today's marriage of President Wilson is the third marriage of a President of the United States while in office. The first of these was the marriage of President John Tyler to Miss Julia A. Gardner, of New York. The only other incident of the kind was the marriage of President Grover Cleveland to Miss Frances Folsom. President Benjamin Harrison's wedding took place after he had left the White House.

Attention, Mr. Farmer

C. M. Jones, Manager. R. B. Holton, Asst. Manager.

Many farmers have begun to see the light at "THE LIBERTY WAREHOUSE," of Maysville, Ky., which is not in the "COMBINE," and has the largest sales floor in Maysville and second largest in the county. The managers of THE LIBERTY WAREHOUSE promise the farmers nothing more than the best they can do as tobacco warehouse men. We do not claim that which is not ours by right, and have no time to knock other markets, as we are too busy boosting our own sales and the result is that new faces are seen on our sales floor each day and those faces are wearing a smile when their owners leave town.

Mr. A. M. Perry is our auctioneer and the man who helps you get the high dollar.

Let Charlie Jones place a smile upon your face by your tobacco with him where every man gets a square deal.
